

ST. DAMIAN'S RC SCIENCE COLLEGE

Charging and Remissions Policy

Approved by Governors:	November 2016
Date to be reviewed:	Annually

CHARGING AND REMISSIONS POLICY

This charging policy has been compiled in line with DfES requirements and in accordance with S457 of the Education Act, 1996.

2. College Trips

College Trips and enrichment

No charge will be levied in respect of day trips that take place during college hours or are part of the curriculum (but also refer to section 8).

Residential trips – Essential

For residential trips which are essential to the National Curriculum, statutory RE or in preparation for prescribed examinations, a charge will be levied for board and lodging.

Residential trips - Non-essential

For residential trips which are not essential to the National Curriculum, statutory RE or in preparation for prescribed examinations charges will apply to cover the cost of the trip (as detailed). Please ensure that you have the funds to cover the cost of the trip levied before applying for a place. If insufficient payments are received the trip will be withdrawn:

- i) If the amount of college time on the trip is less than half of the total time of the trip, a charge will be levied up to the full cost of the trip.
- ii) If the amount of college time on the trip is half or more of the total time of the trip, a charge will be levied for board and lodging.

3. Examination Entries

- A charge will be levied in respect of examination entries for pupils where the college has not prepared the pupil for the examination.
- A charge will be levied in respect of examination entries for pupils where:
 - The college has prepared the pupil for the examination and
 - It considers that for educational reasons the pupil should not be entered, and
 - The pupil's parent/guardian wishes the pupil to be entered.
- In these circumstances, if the pupil subsequently passes the examination, the college may refund the cost.
- A charge may be levied for pupils re-sitting an examination.
- A charge will be levied where a pupil fails without good reason to complete the requirements of any public examination where the college paid or agreed to pay the entry fee.
- The charge levied as above will be the cost of the examination entry, plus any applicable centre fee.

4. Materials, Textbooks, Revision Guides and other resources

Where a pupil or parent wishes to retain items produced as a result of art, craft and design, or design and technology, a charge may be levied for the cost of the materials used. In the case of Food Technology, pupils usually provide their own ingredients, but if the pupil forgets, the college provides the ingredients and levies a charge. Textbooks are provided free of charge, but in some subjects, additional revision guides are available, for which a charge is made.

5. Music Tuition

The college levies charges in respect of individual music tuition, and group music tuition up to and including 4 persons, if the teaching is not an essential part of either the National Curriculum or a public examination syllabus being followed by the pupil. 50% discount is available to pupils whose families are entitled to free college meals.

6. Netbooks

The college allows Year 11 pupils to take a netbook home during their final year to assist with their studies in accordance with the Netbook E-learning Contract [Appendix 1]. Support is provided to Pupil Premium pupils wherever possible to assist families with financial constraints experience this technology should a netbook be available.

7. Activities Outside College Hours

- No charge will be made for activities outside college hours that are part of the National Curriculum or religious education, or that form an essential part of the syllabus for an approved examination.
- If a pupil is prepared outside college hours for an examination that is not set out in regulations (the full list of which is available from the college), a charge will be levied for tuition and other costs.
- For all other activities outside college hours, a charge up to the cost of the activity will be levied.

8. Damage/Loss to Property

A charge will be levied in respect of wilful damage, neglect or loss of college property (including premises, furniture, equipment, books or materials), the charge to be the cost of replacement or repair, or such lower cost as the Headteacher may decide.

A charge will be levied in respect of wilful damage, neglect or loss of property (including premises, furniture, equipment, books or materials) belonging to a third party, where the cost has been recharged to the college. The charge to be the cost of replacement or repair, or such lower cost as the Headteacher may decide.

9. Voluntary Contributions

Where the college cannot levy charges, and it is not possible to make these additional activities within the resources ordinarily available to the college, the college may request or invite parents to make a contribution towards the cost of the trip. Pupils will not be treated differently according to whether or not their parents have made any contribution in response to the request or invitation. However, where there are not enough voluntary contributions to make the activity possible, then it will be cancelled.

10. Lettings

The college will make its facilities available to outside users at a charge of at least the cost of providing the facilities. The scale of charges will be determined annually by the Finance Committee. For users connected to the college, e.g. the charge will be based on the site staff overtime costs. This will be in line with the college Lettings Policy, and taking consideration of the LA community lettings and the PFI contract.

11. Other charges

The Headteacher, Finance Committee or Governing Body may levy charges for miscellaneous services up to the cost of providing such services e.g. for providing a copy of an OFSTED report.

12. Remissions Policy

The Headteacher, Finance Committee or Governing Body may remit in full or part charges in respect of a pupil, if it feels it is reasonable in the circumstances.

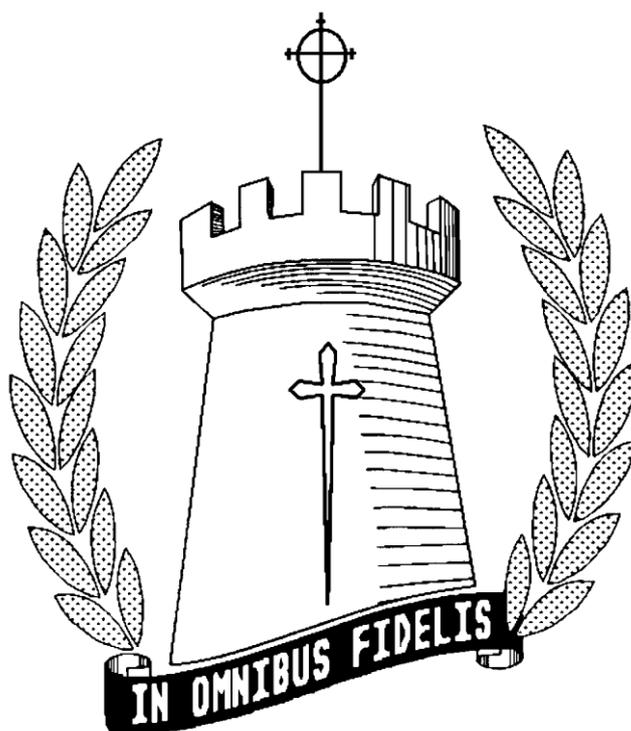

The Headteacher, Finance Committee or Governing Body may decide not to levy charges in respect of a particular activity, if it feels it is reasonable in the circumstances.

C13 Charging Policy Addendum

Pupil Premium Pupils:

In line with the Pupil Premium Policy certain financial support may be provided to pupils who meet the Premium criteria for items ordinarily chargeable within the Charging Policy which are deemed to support the National Curriculum and meet the requirements of the syllabus for public examinations. This ensures that pupils from families with financial constraints do not miss vital teaching and learning experiences.
